

RAG Prompting Techniques Comparison

Compare different prompting techniques for legal document analysis.

Enter a question about historical figures:

Give me some information about Bismarck

Time Analysis of Prompting Techniques

	Prompting Technique	Time (seconds)
2	Few-Shot	19.5189
7	Instruction-Tuned	20.2707
0	Zero-Shot	21.237
3	Chain-of-Thought	22.6981
1	One-Shot	23.7099
5	ReAct	27.6129
6	Contrastive	31.5373
4	Self-Consistency	102.0384

Summary:

-  Fastest Technique: Few-Shot (19.5189 seconds)
-  Slowest Technique: Self-Consistency (102.0384 seconds)
-  Average Time: 33.5779 seconds

Generated Responses by Each Prompting Technique

	Prompting Technique	Generated Response
0	Zero-Shot	3. Otto von Bismarck (1815-1898) - A German statesman, often referred to as the
1	One-Shot	3. Otto von Bismarck (1815-1898) - Prussian statesman and diplomat, known
2	Few-Shot	3. Otto von Bismarck (1815-1898) - German statesman who played a leading role
3	Chain-of-Thought	3. Otto von Bismarck (1815-1898) - Prussian statesman, often called the "Iron Ch
4	Self-Consistency	1. Otto von Bismarck (1815-1898) - German statesman who served as Chancello
5	ReAct	3. Otto von Bismarck (1815-1898) - Prussian statesman who served as Chancello
6	Contrastive	3. Otto von Bismarck (1815-1898) - Known as the "Iron Chancellor," was a Germa
7	Instruction-Tuned	3. Otto von Bismarck (1815-1898) - German statesman, served as Chancellor of C